

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SELF EVALUATION

The attributes listed on the previous page pertain to leadership qualities as they relate to Orchestra . Use the guide at the top of the scale to establish a general standard.

1. Place an "X" in the box for each attribute's appropriate score. Be completely honest.!
2. When finished, connect the X's with straight lines, producing a chart illustrating strengths and weaknesses.
3. Total the points and divide by 20 to get an average. Use the scale at the top to determine a numerical evaluation in each category.
4. Have friends fill out an evaluation to compare their perceptions with your personal evaluation.
5. After a period of time, perform another evaluation on the same form using a different color pen or pencil. This will reveal any changes that have occurred.

SELF EVALUATION OF LEADERSHIP QUALITIES

ATTRIBUTES	Never-----					Sometimes-----					Average-----					Usually-----					Always
	0	5	10	15	20	25	30	35	40	45	50	55	60	65	70	75	80	85	90	95	100 knowledgeable skillful
compassionate
industrious
organized positive
patient
honest
confident
disciplined
responsible creative
emotionally mature
flexible
friendly
helpful
healthy
charismatic
enthusiastic
groomed																									